VEILS AND BLUE GOGGLES.

IN SPITE OF WHICH MRS. MILES SAYS SHE RECOGNIZED ELKINGTON.

Another Court Episode in the So-Called Gal-lant Captain's Career-Elkington's Denial he Appeared to Woman's Dress. Frank Elkington, who claims to have been a Captain in her Majesty's service, was arraigned before Justice Bixby in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday, on a complaint of dis-orderly conduct, made by Mrs. Margaret Miles of 134 East Forty-third street. Mrs. Miles is a sister of Tennie Claffin and Victoria Woodhull.

In an affidavit Mrs. Miles said that shortly ringe. A man and a person dressed as a woman entered on pretence of seeing her on business. The conduct of the one in woman's attire was suspicious. The voice was disguised, and the person limped. This visitor were blue spectacles and two vells. Mrs. Miles felt uneasy and requested that the veils be lifted. The request was not granted, but ington in disguise. She saw also that he held a pistol in his left hand, concealed under the shawls. When Elkington saw that he was recognized he at once quitted the house, forgetting to limp, and hurried away in the carriage. Mrs. Miles further alleges that Elkington is a Mrs. Miles further alleges that Eikington is a desperate man, and that she feared him because of frequent threats he had made of killing her. In November last he told her daughter, to whom he had been married, that he would kill her mother. Mrs. Miles set forth that she believed Eikington intended to do her great bodily harm when he visited her house in woman's dress. On her, complaint Justice Bixby caused Eikington's arrest yesterday afternoon.

Bixby caused Eikington's arrest yesterday afternoon.

Eikington is 37 years of age, tall, and well-proportioned. He looks ten years younger than he is, and dresses well. He has been two months out of Ludiow street iail, and is said to be working on a newspaper called the Industrial Age, He came to this country about two years ago, and on Jan. 13, 1879, was married to Elia C. Miles, a daughter of Mrs. Miles. In May of the same year he was confined in Ludiow street jail on a charge of defrauding persons by means of worthless bonds. He remained in jail for fifteen months. His wife at first quarrelled with her mother and was very devoted to her husband. In October, 1879, it is said, Mrs. Miles received from Mrs. Woodhull, in London, papers showing that Eikington then turned against her husband, and obtained a divorce from him on the ground of his intimacy with a woman in the Ludiow street jail. The decree was made on Feb. 26, 1880. On the following flay Mrs. Eikington was married to Dr. Charles S. Welles, who was Edwards Pierropoth's first Secretary of Legation at the United States Embassy in London.

The lawyers who had caused the imprisonsay Mrs. Elkington was married to Dr. Charles S. Welles, who was Edwards Pierrepotn's first Secretary of Legation at the United States Embassy in London.

The lawyers who had caused the imprisonment of Elkington then became his counsel. The divorce was set aside, the female corespondent testifying that her previous allegations were faise. Mrs. Welles has since applied to have her marriage with Elkington declared void, on the ground that he had a wife living when he married her. Elkington brought suit against Dr. Welles for $50.000 damages for enticing away his wife. Dr. Welles was arrested, and is under bail. He was in court yesterday with Mrs. Welles. To-day she will be brought up in the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus. Elkington, in his application for the writ, claims that Dr. Welles held his Elkington's) wife in custody. Such was the state of affairs when Elkington was arrested yeaterday on Mrs. Miles's complaint.

Mrs. Miles was first cross-examined on her affidavit. She was greatly excited, and she talked so much that Justice Bixby warned her that if she did not behave properly he would dismiss the case. She said that she used the name Channing for advertising purposes in her business as clairvoyant. She had been a clairvoyant since she was sixteen years of age. She reiterated her statement that the person who visited her in woman's attire on the 27th of September was Elkington in disguise, andshat he carried a pistol. Her suspicion was aroused in part by the fact that he handled his fan awkwardly. She was about to lead the stranger to an inner room, when she became very suspicious and asked the stranger to raise her veil. The stranger made a motion to do so, and Mrs. Miles stepped forward and helped her. The face was that of Elkington, and was thickly powdered.

Mrs. Miles's daughter testified that her name is Ella C. Welles. She had been married to face was that of Elkington, and was unickly powdered.

Mrs. Miles's daughter testified that her name is Ella C. Welles. She had been married to Ekington and divorced, and the divorce was set aside. In the mean time she had married Dr. Welles. When Elkington was in the Ludlow street jail she visited him every day. He said he would kill himself unless she came. Elkington told her several times that he would kill her mother. Mrs. Welles produced a letter of Elkington written in October, 1879, and read this passage:

this passage:

"Nothing but death shall part us. Some one will get a dose of cold lead if they do not stop interfering." He told Mrs. Welles that he meant her mother. Mrs. Welles said she saw the face of the strange person in her mother's house and recognized it as Elkington's by lumps on the neck.

on the neck.

The examination was adjourned until to-day.

Eikington denies that he visited Mrs. Miles in disguise. He says he can show where he was at the time, and can produce the lady who called on Mrs. Miles. He says that she was Mrs. Adams and was in court vesterday. Adams, and was in court yesterday.

Justice Bixby required Elkington to give 2500 bail. He was unable to do so, and was locked up. Mrs. Adams was much affected at this, and she offered to leave her watch and jowelry as security for Elkington's appearance. Heroffer was refused.

was refused.

It is said that Mrs. Adams is suing her huaband for a divorce. She learned, it is reported, that he had been at Coney Island with a Mrs. Wells, and she says that she called on Mrs. Miles on the 27th of Scotember to learn whether her daughter was the Mrs. Wells in question.

LOST, STOLEN, OR CONFISCATED. An Auction Sale in which there was no Lack of Variety.

There was a sale by auction on Thursday in the Police Central Office of lost and stolen articles remaining in the possession of the police because their owners had not been found, and opened in the basement of the building with the sale of a sailboat for twenty-five cents. Nine the sale of a sailboat for twenty-five cents. Nine other boats were sold at better rates, $7 being obtained for one, and $13 for another. Twelve pounds of human hair brought $3. A baby carriage was sold for $1.40.

The sale was then adjourned to the Property Clerk's room, where thirty-nine feit bats of not very fashionable make sold for $3.39th cents each. A box of macaroni brought ninety cents, and twenty pounds of tea seven cents a pound. A big black bag containing, according to the cafalogue, one lot unmade clothing, brought $9.50, the purchaser buying the contents without seeing them. Among the articles of clothing sold were two coats, which reminded a bidder of the cestume Garfield must have worn when plodding the flowpath. They brought, not $3.29, but $1.50. The greater number of the articles designated as "female clothing" were sold to a Mrs. Kelly, the only woman at the sale. The first article sold in the "jewelry department" was agold hunting-case watch, which brought $17.50. The auction closed with the sale of 109 revolvers and 28 pistols, which had either been confiscated from persons who carried them without a permit or taken from prisoners.

The amount obtained by the sale is between $700 and $800.

A Brakeman's Head Crushed in a Bridge MONTREAL, Oct. 1.—Michel Lussier, a brake-man on the Grand Trunk eastern freight train, is at the point of death with a fractured skull. A CIVIL SHERIFF'S DEFICIT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 1 .- The city auhorities of New Orleans have instituted suit against J. R. Alcee Ganthreaux, late Civil Sheriff of that city, to force a settlement of his tax collections for 1879. Ganthreaux came to this city in June last, became seriously ill, and has not been able to return. On going into office Ganthreaux entered into an agreement to make a weekly return to the Mayor and administrators of all taxes collected by him. This he did promptly until near the close of 1879. On Dec. 4 the administrators warned him that his settlements were falling behind. They continued to write to him after he came to this city, urging settlements, but failed to get them until June 28, when he deposited with the Department of Finance what was supposed by the authorities to be the entire amount due the city. The term of office of Ganthreaux expired inst summer, and the final statement from his office showed a deficit of $83.000 in State scrip and $30.000 in cash. The amount should have been collected but had never been turned over. The final statement, showing the deficit, was made by his cashier, James O. Wright, who refused to answer any questions propounded by the administrators in regard to the deficiency. Before making the deficit public, Mayor Patton of New Orleans came to this city last week to interview Ganthreaux. The latter professed the greatest astonishment that anything was wrong with his accounts, but, owing to his liluses, nothing definite could be learned from him. Mayor Patton on his return to New Orleans laid the subject before the authorities, and James O. Wright, the cashier, was arrested for embezzlement, and for making aworn statements that were false, to the extent of $113.000. He pleaded not guilty and was admitted to bail under bonds of $5.000 on each of the two counts. His trial is set down for Oct. 6. An affidavit was also made out against ex-Sheriff Ganthreaux, charging him with using his official position to collect money due the city of New Orleans and feloniously converting the same to his own uses; and, further, that he had refused to pay the said money to the proper authorities on demand. These affidavits will be executed as soon as the proper steps can be taken. Meanwhile, Ganthreaux has made a statement in which he attempts to exonerate himself.

Ganthreaux came to this city early in June last and was taken ill at the Gait House. He was removed to the residence of his physician, Dr. R. C. Cowling, for treatment, where he yet remains. For fifty days he at a absolutely no colld food and swallowed little clae than water. During this time he was under the influence of opiates. His eyesight was badly impaired, and his mental condi after 7 o'clock on the evening of Sept. 27. a failed to get them until June 28, when number of persons drove to her house in a car- he deposited with the Department of Finance

A Chicagonn's Story of Suffering in Memphi CHICAGO, Oct. 1 .- William Pannell of Chicago says that he went to Hot Springs, Ark., about a year ago and last June, partly recovered, went to Memphia. He was soon out of money, and obliged to leave the hotel, and for seventeen days wandered through the hotel, and for exenteen days wandered through the swamps about Memphis, occasionally cetting a little help from the necroes. On his return to Memphis he was put in the City Prisen and kept for forty days. When he saked for water the attendants would sometimes play on him with the hose; and when he cried out they shackled him to the floor. A negra waiter lelped him to escape from prison, and while still delirious he was taken to the county poschouse, red on abountable food, mattreated in every way, and his condition rendered worse than before. After various wanderines and sufferiags he again brought up in Memphis prison, where his persecutions were renewed. Mr. Quinn of the Commercial Hotel, taking pity on him, secured his release, and through the agency of friends here he was brought back to Chicago on Wednesday.

Bold Stage Robbery in Missouri.

ST. Louis, Oct. 1.-Special despatches from the former place, by a party of six masked, well-armed the former place, by a party of six masked, well-armed men, and the passengers, eleven men and one woman, were robbed of their money and other valuables. About 8000 was taken, of which a P. Mann, assistant engineer on the 8t. Louis and San Francisco Railread, lost 8270, and A. H. Champlin, his clerk, $175. Two other passengers threw away their pocketteoks, containing $1,500, when the stage was stopped, but recovered then after the robbers had left. Mr. Champlin attempted to draw a revolver, but a bullet which passed through his coat sleeve, admonished him to keep quiet.

whether he was a wholesale or retail clothing.

Supt. Raymond is still seeking to trace this clothing.

The Wheelbarrow Man. MERCERSBURG, Pa., Sept. 28.-R. Lyman Pot

ter, "the wheelbarrow man," arrived here this evening from San Francisco. He is in excellent health, and does not look much the worse for his extraordinary feat. His wolf and rattlesmakes are doing nicely, and he exhibits them with his thousand and one other curiosities. His greatest curiosity, however, is his barrow, which he has pushed more than 11,000 miles. The wheel looks like a ball of repe bound with an iron hoop. He will push it to the Antietam battlefield, thence to Gettysburg, and from there to New York.

Are Now Matters of General Interest,

And are Attracting Much Attention,

Both from Scientific and Medical Men.

The Following Article Will be Read with Great Interest, Especially by Sufferers from Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, and Indigestion.

Celery has only come into public notice within the last tow years as a nervine, but scientific experiments and experience have proved beyond a doubt that it control Servous Irritation and periodic Nervous and Bick Head ches to a marked degree.

But a combination of the EXTRACT OF CELERY AND CHAMONILE, which has been but recently introduced to the profession and the public by myself, has produced such marvellous results in curing nervousness and head-aches, and especially nervous and sick headaches, neuraigia, indigestion, and sleeplessness. that it has excited public attention and newspaper comments, and there fore I give the following information to the public to avoid answering hundreds of letters of inquiry about aches and nervousness, are prepared under my super-vision, and are intended expressly to cure headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, sleeplessness, and nervousness, and will cure any case where no organic disease of th brain or spinal cord exists. Hundreds of cases of many rears' standing have been cured. No matter how chronic or obstinate the case may be, a permanent cure is mor ally certain. This statement is made after years of expe rience in their use in the general practice of medicine

These pills are also valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches, caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain workers, whose overtaxed nervous centres need repai and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness, and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct cosiveness, but are not purgative.
